

NOVEL EVENTS ARRANGED BY WOMEN'S CLUBS FOR ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Souvenirs and Decorations to Be Suggestive of the Day—Criterion Society to Give Large Dinner and Dance.

ST. PATRICK'S day will be the excuse of many novel entertainments this week. Numerous dances, dinners, luncheons, card parties and other events have been arranged in honor of the patron saint of Ireland, with souvenirs and decorations suggestive of the day.

The Marquette Club will have a minstrel show, followed by dancing, on Friday, their only entertainment during the Lenten season; the American Criterion Society, a large dinner and dance that night; the Mount Holyoke College Alumnae Association, a dance; the Drama Comedy Club, an entertainment and dance; the Yelton Alumnae Association, a benefit bridge party; the Woman's National Automobile Club of America, an entertainment and dance; the Woman's Forum, an important meeting that morning; the Euphony Society, a dance; the National Society, Daughters of the Union, a bridge and tea, and there will be an entertainment and dance for the benefit of the Jewish Health Center at the studio of Mr. A. A. Anderson.

500 to Attend Dance Of Criterion Club

When the American Criterion Society, Mrs. Leonard L. Hill, president, celebrates St. Patrick's Day Friday night at the Hotel Commodore with a large dinner and dance, green will be much in evidence. The walls of the big ballroom, where the dinner is to be served and where the dancing later will take place, will be decorated with early spring greens. On the round dining tables, seating twelve and sixteen, will be tall vases filled with trailing smilax and ferns, yellow tulips and white narcissus.

Five hundred members of the American Criterion Society and their guests will participate. Three hundred reservations have been made for the dinner and two hundred of the juniors will come in afterward for the dancing. For these a midnight supper will be served. An orchestra of twelve musicians will play for the dancing from 8:30 P. M. until 2 in the morning.

Many of the club members are planning large parties for Friday evening. Mrs. L. A. Cushman will have a table for sixteen. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. William T. Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. William Dillon. Others who have reserved tables are Mrs. Robert Parker, Mrs. Hubert Templeton Parsons, Mrs. Joseph Purcell, Mrs. W. Edgar Pruden and Mrs. Henry K. Adams.

Mrs. Hill has chosen her thirty guests from the Junior members of the society. They will include her niece, Miss Mildred Freeman, the Misses Gertrude Collins, June Love, Marjorie Cushman, Barbara Louise, Helen Collins, Dorothy Bowman, Hazel Crockett, Alice Braun, Marcella Verran, Gladys de Cordova, Helen York, Ida Braun, Charlotte Osgood and Arlene C. Crighton. Messrs. Ridley Enslow, Harrison E. Moore, Gordon Cushman, Carl Braun and Dr. Robert Snedeker.

Euphony Society, Mrs. James J. Gormley president, will have its Chevy Chase dance on Friday at the Waldorf-Astoria. This is the annual dance given by the president to the choral members and their friends.

The next meeting of the Euphony Luncheon Club will be held on March 30 at the Waldorf.

Society of Reconstruction Arranges a May Dance

The American Society of Reconstruction will give a May dance at the Army and Navy Club on the morning of May 1. Mrs. William H. Selden will be chairman of the dance arrangements and will be assisted by a number of debutantes.

The society held a large and interesting meeting on Monday at the Hotel Plaza. Mrs. Robert Wylie Lytle, the founder and president, opened the meeting with greetings to the members and their guests and was hostess for the social hour following. Mr. Guy Empey, novelist, was the principal speaker. The society of the present included Mrs. Henry Clarke Cox, Mrs. E. N. Brown, Mrs. Minnie Taylor Pearson, Mrs. Myron T. Souder, Mrs. Lee Caruthers, Mrs. William R. Boyd, Mrs. M. Donna, Mrs. Joseph E. Ryan, Mrs. E. M. Moore, Harry Lee Ziegler, Mrs. David Lopez Cardozo, Mrs. Richard T. Lynch, Mrs. Arthur V.
